I am a Catholic wife, mother, and speaker from Ashburn, Virginia and the author of Let Yourself Be Loved: How the Darkness of Grief Led me to Peace, Purpose, and Joy. (Koehler Books, Jan/2022). I have been a leader in ministry and faith-formation for more than twenty-five years and aim to inspire women to find freedom through intimacy with Christ. I connect warmly and vulnerably with listeners through my story of unexpected brokenness. I share authentically how the Lord used betrayal, divorce, death, and sexual abuse to heal my heart and draw me to His own. I lead women to a deeper faith by sharing my journey through suffering to joy.
